

LAUNCHING OF NEW FISHING VESSEL – CLOSE COOPERATION ONWARDS –

NORDIC SEACO TO ANNOUNCE AGREEMENT

- Fishing vessel M SOLHAUG

M SOLHAUG

We inspected the brand new fishing vessel M Solhaug, with homeport of Båtsfjord, Norway. The impression was simply stunning. The young fishing master, Mr. Mikal Solhaug, has been using all his hard working experiences to develop a state-of-the-art combined fishing vessel.

The goal of M Solhaug will be effective fishing with both "net gear" and "longline" off the coast of North of Norway and Barents Sea. Catching among Atlantic Cod, Haddock and Saithe.

Further this fishing vessel has capacity of storing both fresh and frozen first class whitefish onboard. The total storing capacity is impressive 290 m³.

M Solhaug is designed by Norwegian Seacon and build at Tersan Shipyard in Turkey.

12 people will be working per catching trip.
